

York County Elder Abuse Task Force

Scholarship Application

Deadline: June 1, 2018

The York County Elder Abuse Task Force, established in 2005, is a group of committed professionals from many fields, including but not limited to law enforcement, social services, legal services for the elderly and financial institutions. We come together to share our knowledge and skills, to serve as a resource to educate the public about elder abuse, and ultimately eliminate it as a problem in York county.

We as a task force are proud to be a part of and have developed many innovative and nationally recognized activities surrounding our elders including this annual scholarship award.

The York County Elder Abuse Task Force is pleased to offer a $500 scholarship this year. This will be awarded to a York county, Maine student who has successfully completed requirements for graduation from a York county, Maine high school and who will be attending college or a certification program as a full-time student during the 2018-2019 academic year.

For consideration for the York County scholarship contest you must submit a 500 word, double-spaced essay in response to the question: “What is elder abuse and why does it matter to you?”

Send essay to the following by June 1, 2018 to be considered.
